

CCMW Waterloo Wellington Chapter Presents

Muslim Marriage Contract Workshop

An Information Workshop about Muslim Marriage and Family Law in Ontario

The Canadian Council of Muslim Women (CCMW) has created an information kit to assist Canadian Muslim couples to respectfully use their heritage to define their marriage within the framework of Canadian Family Law. This information workshop will introduce a handbook on a Muslim marriage contract as well as the Sample Marriage Contract documents, which may be included in the contract, or simply discussed before marriage to clarify the commitments. This document has been developed by legal experts with scholarly research from the various Muslim schools of jurisprudence.

Who should attend? This workshop is intended for Canadian Muslim women and men

Why should I attend? The workshop is intended to increase understanding of the family law in the lives of Ontarians.
