

CCMW Toronto Chapter

BODY POLITICS: BELONGING & BANISHMENT

MARCH 2011

Successful Event Overview

- Leveraging “Being a Canadian Woman in the 21st Century” educational resource kit, CCMW Toronto Chapter presented a workshop on the complex issue of the of the niqab.
- Ateeka Khan, 2nd year M.A. student, facilitated the event outlining the case of Quebec’s Bill 94 as well as related issues, such as the banning of the hijab on Quebec soccer fields, and bans in other parts of the world.
- The event featured a documentary by Pacinthe Mattar entitled Tempest in a Face Cloth
- Over 40 engaging participants attended the event at Noor Cultural Centre on Thursday, March 31st from 6:30-9:30PM
- It was an evening filled with insightful dialogue and thought-provoking questions.

